

Abundant Motherhood

Happy Mother's Day

1. Moms need Patience

- “Maybe, patience, love, & understanding.”

A close-up photograph of a hand holding a pink rose. The hand is positioned in the center, with the fingers gently cradling the petals. The rose is in full bloom, showing vibrant pink and white colors. The background is softly blurred, showing green leaves and a brown stem, suggesting a garden or a bouquet. The lighting is natural, highlighting the texture of the petals and the skin of the hand.

2. Moms Need Appreciation

1. "To be TOLD you are loved - to only be touched and shown by touching that you are loved. To be able to see through the eyes of your husband and children that you are appreciated and accepted as a loving person. Actually seeing the love of the Lord in THEIR eyes. “
2. I would like to see less criticism of each other. Acceptance of differences and opinions when together.

3. Mom's Need A Life

- “Make visits and trips with the kids nicer and not have to be on guard or the peacemaker all the time. Basically quality time together, as a couple or a family. That does not mean Mom needs to cook to make it quality time. She might want to be there in the conversation and not tied up in the kitchen for 2-3 hours. Sandwiches/ hot dogs would allow for the whole family to be together and interact. I love them all and want to spend time with them too.”

4. Moms Need Wisdom

- “When it comes to raising kids, we face difficulty, we face daily struggle, but we also face tragedy. We need wisdom. We need God’s wisdom.”

5. Moms Need Praise

- “I’m a single mom with kids and our life is so different, unbelievably different. Just knowing that my kids understand that.”
- “Acknowledgement that I exist.”
- “I guess you could say that my husbands understanding of me as a person is the greatest asset to living an abundant life.”

6. Moms Need Communication

1. “My answer is time and to listen to me. Sometimes being here by myself I just like to talk about this or that . I feel like I am bothering all of them. So I just try to keep to myself”
2. LISTEN!.....To God and Mom!

7. Moms Need Rest

1. *“From the kids, more help around the house, with keeping up with housework, laundry, dishes, and everything.
From husband, more quality time away from the kids to spend time together.”*
2. I'd have to say, time together, and bring the grandkids to me more often.

8. Moms Need Faith

1. “Our house isn't always divided because he makes the kids go to church, but he doesn't understand kids do as they see. If he doesn't go to church why should they.”
2. “A spiritual head for the family would've been nice!”
3. “Love, respect and understanding that Jesus Christ is my first Love as I hope it is for them.”

9. Moms Need Love

1. “Just spending time”
2. “Love, encouragement, forgiveness!!!”
3. “One more thing, while still here on this earth, I need lots of love, laughter, and hugs from my husband and children.”
4. “love and understanding”

10. Moms Need Spiritual Assurance For their Family

1. “I think I need the assurance that my family has accepted Jesus as their savior. As long as I know that their future is assured, what life on earth could be more abundant?”
2. "Love & support. Knowing they are following in Christ teachings & that He is Lord of their lives."

10. Moms Need Spiritual Assurance For their Family

3. Glenn - having life more abundantly to me would be knowing that I would see my children and Husband in heaven with me some day. That is something I am still praying for. My children were saved and baptized when they were young, but they have been away from God for a while. I still have hope for them and my Husband. So my family could help me have a more abundant life by living a good, Christian life, and joining me for eternity.
